Colonel W. R. Swarm
Commandant
U. S. Army Civil Affairs School
Fort Gordon, Georgia

Dear Colonel Swarm:

Thank you for your kind letter of 14 December. I am pleased to hear from you that Colonel Baird's specialists on International Communism have made a real contribution to the courses of instruction at the U. S. Army Civil Affairs School.

The activities of Civil Affairs personnel are certainly important and an integral part of the country's total response to the Communist challenge. For this reason, I heartily endorse your request for continued participation of our Office of Training personnel in your courses of instruction.

It is a very small staff, however, and its members have many commitments, not only in CIA but at the various military and other government schools in the area. Because of these other commitments, they may not be able to accept all your requests.

I am confident that the mutual collaboration between our two organizations will continue to be fruitful.

Sincerely,

Signed C. P. CABELL
